'Your Humanist Ceremony'

Wouldn't it be great to start your married life with a ceremony that really means something? To tell your friends and family what your relationship means to you, and why you are choosing to get married? Many of us who aren't religious are looking for a wedding that is more flexible and personal than a civil or register office ceremony.

A Humanist, non-religious Wedding Ceremony gives you the opportunity to marry where you want, when you want and how you want. There's no set script: it's too personal an occasion for that. Instead, each wedding is tailored to meet the couple's requirements. You can set the tone that's right for you and choose your own words and music. Here at The 3 Acres, many couples see Our Old Barn as the perfect ceremony venue with its cosy atmosphere and relaxed setting.

Unlike in Scotland, and now recently in Northern Ireland, Humanist Weddings are not yet recognised in law in England and Wales, and so couples often go to the register office to take care of the legal formalities in the days before or after their Humanist Wedding. However, many couples tell us it is their Humanist Wedding that is 'the real deal' since it is such an immensely personal occasion, one that has been crafted with much love and care.

You can enjoy your Humanist Ceremony only at a hire cost of £500. You will need to contact your local celebrant for pricing details. Any costs associated with hiring your chosen celebrant are not inclusive in The 3 Acres pricing structure.

For more information please visit www.humanistceremonies.org.uk/weddings or contact our local celebrant Val Turner on 01274 484509

Please note: The 3 Acres are not currently licenced to hold civil ceremonies
